

Will her works arrive in time?

MISS OLGA JANCIC, of Jugoslavia, one of Europe's leading sculptors, pictured today at Harrogate, where she is waiting hopefully for 20 pieces of her sculpture to arrive for the Harrogate Festival of Visual Art.

The sculptures, which were impounded by Customs officials at Harwich, have been freed after Harrogate Corporation had paid a deposit and completed documentation.

Mr. W. W. Baxter, Harrogate Publicity Officer, said today: "It is now up to British Railways, and we are hoping the pieces will be here in time."

The Festival opens tomorrow afternoon.
